I have said it was total depravity. It is so with most people. After the sermon, a collection was taken up for the minister; and I noticed that nothing but pennies rattled into the boxes,--a melancholy sound for the pastor. In drama and fiction, particularly, difference is life and identity is death; and this "tyrannizing unity" would cut the ground from under them both. That winter was his last. Man, he tells us, is "a rather long-lived animal, with great powers of enjoyment, if he does not deliberately short essay on my favourite book harry potter characters forgo them." In the past, we are told, "superstitious and mythical ideas of sin have predominantly controlled these powers." We have changed all that now; as the parent in Punch says to the crying child by the seashore, "You've come out to enjoy yourself, and enjoy yourself you shall!"
